Love this place the sushi is amazing!!! Wife loves the longhorn roll!!! The chicken and steak teriyaki both very good!! The feel is place is ok ... amazing lunch spot!! Service is good nothing special... but the food is!! read more. What Valerie A doesn't like about Haiku Japanese:

Food is usually pretty good for averaged sushi. Service is hit or miss. The staff never seems very happy. They seem very over worked and underappreciated. The food can be great all day and everyday, but if your staff isn't happy it can run the entire experience. Happy hour is the best time to go. Otherwise you're paying too much for the quality you're getting. read more. At Haiku Japanese from Austin it's possible to try delicious vegetarian courses, that were made without any animal meat or fish, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to cook easily digestible Japanese dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Haiku Japanese. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, Besides, the light and healthy meals in the specialty list are among the favorite dishes of the customers.
