Discovered this urban restoration, which offered brunch, lunch and dinner. Nick was very welcoming and helpful with the menu and we enjoyed meeting the manager and bartender who served us delicious Mimosas! We chose the couch and our table enjoyed window view on their terrace dining. I'm not a burger, but I copied my husband and ordered her gourmet burger wow! We look forward to returning to other menu items. Child-... read more.

What User doesn't like about Prep Kitchen San Marcos:

I was very disappointed with the experience we had here. I had been to the Del Mar location and loved it! At this location though it was a completely different experience. It is way overpriced! The service was not good. We had to ask for things several times. We ordered brussel sprouts that finally came after our meals came. Also I found a hair in my sandwich, which to me, is a deal breaker. The good things were the... read more.
