One of the best fish restaurants I visited in the center of Florida. From the atmosphere to the season on the food, this place is a MUST TRY. The portion sizes are gracious and prices are reasonable. It is clean and a great place to be. Our hostess was a jewel and well versed in the menu. She gave recommendations to our taste. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about King Cajun And Pho 80:

This is my first time here and these are the utensils we have. Filled with fat, mosquitoes and food....not something you want in a restaurant much less a seafood. They were asked to replace the cutlery, and the food and our server was great. The reason we gave a 3 and not a 1 was that our server immediately took care of the situation. She even composed our drinks, but fire your dishwasher. read more.
