I was just finished walking the Fire Trail and decided to drag back through the campus to see the clock tower on the way down the hill before I return to my car. I was stopped in the middle of it when I passed D'yar just because of the smells that came from the little store. All the chairs were stacked on the tables, but they take pickup orders and still accept cash. The staff wore masks and gloves. For $40 we receive... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about D'yar:

Good food, but extremely unfriendly employees make this place a dragon to order. Never has an employee smiled or asked how I...horrible service never makes me want to come back. read more. Whether it's a tasty flatbread with a pleasant garlic dip or crispy falafel, the enjoyment of the menus from the Middle East almost feels like being on a vacation - topped off with a crispy, sweet baklava, you'll head home satisfied, Customers can enjoy the dishes from restaurant through a catering service on-site or at the party. There are also light Mediterranean meals on the menu.
