I honestly don't know why this place has no more five star reviews. The pizza is brilliant and the staff is so out. My husband and I found this hidden mass while I was looking for a cheap lunch. The crust on the pizza is so soft inside and the slices are huge. The Gelato is also amazing. We always came back. We had the wild strawberry, raspberry cheesecake and the roasted coconut. I pissed the lemon and it was amazin... read more. I didn't expect anything great, or good prices, at a counter service pizzeria inside a casino, but this place didn't come close to meeting even my low expectations. The food, which was mediocre, was the best part. The service was poor. The cashier who took my order could barely be bothered to give me her attention. I ordered two plain slices, which were offered on the menu. She said no plain pizza was available! Inste... read more.
