User likes about The Laughing Owl:

Santa Claus visited the laughing Owl tonight. The food was good, although it took some time to get waiters to our table on our drinks order. We have Szechuan string beans with chicken, spring rolls and Pineapple Street chicken. I ordered the Singapore noodles as a page that was an option in the menu, but unfortunately only my noodles were given. The Singapore Noodles are a really good option, and I'm sad that I misse... The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Laughing Owl:

Slow service lasted almost an hour to get food, not that it counts a lot, but they were empty, would not have taken an hour. Had to ask for cutlery after our food was served. Drinks were flat tea bad. I'm sure the pot stickers were frozen when you consider how tender they were. When it was time for our review, it took another 30 minutes to get it and when we did it, it was wrong. This is the manager's fault, the wait... read more. The Laughing Owl from Kinston is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American menus like Burger or Barbecue. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of The Laughing Owl. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
