We are enthusiastic eaters and are always skeptical of everything in areas like South Beach, but our meal in Lure was very good. Started with some oysters and shrimps in the octopus then the crispy snapper, finished it with the cream brulee. I couldn't really tell you what was best. The snapper said it was for two, but we could hardly finish it. Huge pieces of meat beautifully baked and fried almost orange chicken st... read more. What

User doesn't like about Lure Fishbar:

My bf and I were very dissappointed with the food and service. First of all they ask you what water you want but do not explain that there is a charge for it. 10 bucks for Fiji water is ridiculous. I understand this is an upscale restaurant and I have been to ones with better service. We waited 15 min for our check and our waiter barely checked on us. I ordered the classic lobster roll and was so excited to try it ba... read more.
