It's okay. they really need more quality control when it comes to orders through the drive thru. I would say 80 percent of the time they have screwed up an order and they have to go back to correct their order. they can be better than that. Sometimes the meal times are met and missed because eating quickly on them. That's why I say it's okay. it could be better to get in there. so the choice is her read more.
