Great place to stop for breakfast or lunch. Friendly staff, and the food is always top notch super fresh and satisfyingly delicious. Whenever I'm in St. Paul I make it a point to stop here. Plus they have some great bakery items to satisfy your sweet tooth at the end of your meal. Took home a mini key lime pie the last time I was there that my wife and I loved every bite of. This restaurant is not optimized for carryout. The online ordering is slick but when you arrive you need to call the restaurant and in order to talk to someone you need to first listen to a phone tree that's a minute long and you can't click through it. Very frustrating. My smothered burrito would be better left unsmothered for takeout with the sauces on the side for dipping since the smothering doesn't lend itself t... read more.
