Placed online order and they never end it again. Has the order taken off and started to make it as soon as I showed them the confirmation email. The staff was friendly. Had enough time to check into the hotel on the street while they cooked it and then again for it. They gave us extra cookies because they were not ready. No hard feelings that happen things and the food was good and right when they get back read more. What User doesn't like about Red Lobster:

It was the worst experience I had in Peru. The service was terrible. We waited a long time for refilling for our shrimps that my nephew said, forget about it because we waited for them so long and when they got the bills together, they took 20 minutes to finally get the done and still have the orders for the bills messed up. We were there for a celebration read more. The Red Lobster from Peru serves various tasty seafood courses, You can also discover nice South American meals on the menu.
