Right off the bat when walking in you can tell this restaurant is a special and quirky place. The space is filled with various frog themed art and looks like a museum dedicated to frogs! The owner was super helpful and friendly and made sure my party knew that they mostly served frog here (tastes like chicken). The food was great and this place deserves way more traffic : the whole thing is an experience to say the l... read more. What John john doesn't like about Mr Frog:

Very unpleasant meal, very bad attitude, 20% tip was collected without informing the guest, and the amount of bullfrog was very small!!! Still very expensive!!! read more. Perfectly pairing with the meals of the establishment are the fresh and delicious juices on the drinks menu, Many visitors find it especially great that they can try the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine.
