Almah has such a wonderful vibe it feels like you've just walked into a whole different country. The pastries are immaculate and the breakfast they serve is so delicious and light while also being filling. Would highly recommend for anyone looking to try good Israeli style food in the area. Saw the reviews...one was a complaint about an item with cheese in the name that lacked cheese. They replied send us a picture of your item how can I eat the item and send you a picture a day later unless you want a crappier version .I mean come on, just admit that sometimes you substitute items outBecause you ran out of supplies. Lying on your reviews will never be the way and maybe put up a sign that you only want... read more.
