I think they were understaffed. the lovely waitress did make every effort to right the wrongs which we appreciated. the food was very good. the cocktails were delicious. the service can be better... annnnnd the ladies room was very DIRTY. I would recommend HCB to a friend but I'd be sure to let them know the things I observed first read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Harold's Chicken Bar:

so the dame in the front could not understand what I said with my mask, so I spoke a little louder for her to hear, but again I am the evil and will be screamed by her? the boldness of her to say: "The other participant has already told you how long your order will last me so long, don't yell at me so much" very unprofessional. my pickup order was interrupted by the door. she thought I was a supplier.
