house of kabobs is a small nut and pop shop in sunnyvale. they have a small menu, but the kabobs are well marinated, juicy and delicate! Please note that the spice could be something on the heavy side, so be ready to pair with some rice. the humus is also great, smooth, silky and tasteful. I will definitely come back for more kabobs. What User doesn't like about

House Of Kabobs:

hard, overcooked meat. some of them tasted spoiled or ab, and it was used hard in msg to mask it. the tomatos looked beautiful and carved out from outside, but were completely raw on the inside. probably some of the worst

Mediterranean food in the bay. read more. The tasty and fresh juices listed on the drinks menu, perfectly complete the meals of the restaurant, The customers also rave about the fine, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. It should not be forgotten that there is a extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, well digestible Mediterranean courses are also on the menu.
