they are listed on the door so that I put an order, but when the driver arrived, the staff told the driver that the restaurant did not door. they just lied to me and canceled my order because they didn't feel that way. I had even asked the driver to leave a tip of money that I would compensate for, so they are tipped up extra on the order. if they don't want to do door, they take it off! they are not forced to do it.
