The Card of Fuel Juice from New York City includes about 10 different meals and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $9.9. What User likes about Fuel Juice:

The food here is really good. I'll get the mushroom bowl and the cheesecake. I'm dependent on cheesecake. Just the right level of sweetness. Many times vegan desserts can be overloaded with sugar. Not here. I tried the açai bowl for the first time today and it was delicious, best I had. It's just that it's expensive, but it's worth it. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Fuel Juice:

The baked salmon and organic brewery with "broccoli and carrots". I received a box full of rice about 2.5 ounces of salmon and three small broccoli with several shreds of carrots and a quarter avocado. The food tasted good, but there was hardly one in my plate except rice. You don't get what you pay for... read more.
