Once a beloved destination for flavorful Mexican cuisine, this restaurant has faced significant challenges in recent years, leading to a notable decline in food quality. Patrons have reported items like the shredded beef chimichanga and carne asada as tasteless, mushy, and subpar, while additional dishes have been criticized for their lack of flavor and inadequate portioning of condiments. Despite the friendly staff and convenience of location, recent dining experiences have left many questioning their loyalty. While a few favorites, such as breakfast burritos and carne asada fries, still shine, overall sentiment suggests it's time for a shift in culinary focus.
