I went to this diner this morning and can honestly say I had the best omelett and American pommies ever! I would recommend this place to anyone looking for a great meal. read more. What User doesn't like about Jeannie's House Diner:

I called to make an order and was put on hold for 20 minutes, they took the phone off the hook and put it to the side and I could hear them talking and joking around the whole time. I drove all the way to the location (still being on hold) and they were just standing around joking with each other with only five people eating in the restaurant. The food is really good but don't ever go to this location they constantly... read more.
