What User likes about Taipei Express:

We've been here for years and the food is always good. I appreciate it being a family restaurant. You are always good at getting the order correctly (and confirm it again! I usually get the sesame tofu or mixed vegetables with tofu, but I also tried their shrimp dishes and they are good. I also like the crab gangoon and veggie dumplings! read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Tony Joris

doesn't like about Taipei Express:

I drive 30 miles for the food. I order the same dishes as before the change in ownership. The service is better, but the food isn't nearly as good as it was under the old man. I think I'll stop making that drive. read more.
