It just went to the ice skating and found this place next to us. Online reviews and couldn't control me by trying out their menus. In the pictures you can see Thai Chicken Friend Rice and Lachs Sushi. A little expensive, but an amazing place to visit in downtown. Definitely next time to try some drinks. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Squid Ink Sushi:

2 stars for food. Thats about it. One of the crispy bean appetizer was decent but charboiled Calamari was a disaster. It was dry chewy. Because of a bit of curry sauce, it was edible. Shishito pepper was way overcooked. Dipping sauce was regular soy sauce. We ordered few rolls.. just the spicy tuna roll Uni was ok but rest of them lacked any freshness. Ordered ramen with pork belly pork belly smelled weird tasted bad. Broth lacked umami. Considering how pricey this restaurant menu is food served here was below standard. Any grocery store sushi would have costed less with better quality. Service was good though. In the Squid Ink Sushi from Phoenix, a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish, and meat are used to prepare healthy, delicious Japanese dishes, Naturally, you can't miss out on the delicious burgers, which are accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Squid Ink Sushi. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian meals.
