Always friendly, and if you go during happy hour you can get 2 of the best shakes ever for under $6, I mean come on, that is less than one shake at Red Robin or Johnny Rockets. And the range of shakes is good, not just the three normal ones, and they will make pretty much what you want, I like chocolate banana, not in the menu, they make it anyway. The burgers are not bad, and are about in the price range as McDonald... read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Mike B doesn't like about Steak 'n Shake:

Took 18 minutes for a shake. They were not busy, only a couple cars and one other customer inside, middle of the afternoon. I was considering ordering a burger but changed my mind after the wait time for the shake. The milkshake was really really good... Inside is not the cleanest and employees going between tasks like cash handling and food prep more than they should be. Basically they seem to take 10 to 15 minutes per c... read more. The establishment also offers its visitors a catering service. Of course, you also have to try the fine burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, you can also discover nice South American cuisine in the menu.
