sushi from a trailer? hey, it was great. not quite traditional sushi, but just as good! after the order it took a long time to eat, but a few people had ordered right before me and it is a small operation, so totally understood. for a unique sushi, they go here! and the bomba could be a meal alone. edit: two years later I live in chicago and still think of this place, lol. I have just checked google maps to make sure... read more. What User doesn't like about

El Sushi De Papá La Carreta:

Missing The traditional salads that Mexican sushi has, to plain won't come back here. Wish them good luck, drove from Phoenix passing through to Nogales stopped to support small businesses. Not for me at all, wish I would have opened the package before I left. read more.
