I recommend a stop here. The ice cream is creamy and tasty and there is only something about eating ice cream on a milk farm that makes it even more pleasant. I had to order the Cow Pie taste, and it was amazing! We went at noon in low season, and there was a line so if you're going in summer, you can avoid peak hours, but even if you arrive and find a long line, stick it out because the ice is worth it! I'm so disappointed in Hopkins. We were there twice and both times had bad experiences with long wait times (45 minutes after ordering and paying). Then we were told the flavor we ordered was not available. The first time it happened, we ordered a different flavor and waited an additional fifteen minutes. The second time it happened, we asked for a refund and waited 15 minutes for the money and the teenager was very... read more.
