Food is amazing (possibly the best sushi in the city), ambience is great, and the waitress who served me was phenomenal. However, the service was somewhat slow, as the waiting between the dishes was quietly long. But I think I don't mind because it was Valentine's Day. In any case, would recommend. read more. It was very good and the overall service was great. It was a bit awkward because I did not get my main dish until my dining partner was almost done with her main course. Will not keep me from returning but I hope it is not like this every time I visit. Had the yuzu sorbet. It was wonderful read more.
