As locals we always try to venture out and try new places, from my past experience its the best way to find a local hidden gem. Today was our first time eating here at 126 Chinese restaurant and both my husband and I were very pleased with the food. This is the first Chinese restaurant in this area that actually offer the 1/2 gallon or gallon rices (this is something that we were so use to in Miami whenever we would... read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant at no extra cost. In the kitchen of 126 Chinese in Kissimmee, traditional courses are prepared with original Asian spices delicious, Furthermore, the visitors love the successful combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
