Hands down best bbque in the area! And all of the sides are homemade, which most places do not have. The folks are so friendly. And it's so much food- we got two meals out of one! We always stop here on our way to the coast. Don't miss the banana pudding- is homemade and the best I've ever had. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Riley's Pit Bbq:

Service is super friendly and it's a cute lil place, but the food. We are from San Antonio so when ppl say I would've rather have bill miller's, it's bad. The brisket was SUPER DRY, my husband got a piece that looked like the life had been sucked out of it. The guy cutting it should've seen it and thrown it away. To make matters worse he cut the brisket WRONG. We both got the mac n cheese, that had to have been a box s... read more.
