First time visiting this location to eat. The diner had counter and booth seating. The place was very clean and attractive, with older picture posters used for decoration. I had a western omlette served with potatoes and toast.

Couldn't resist an order of bacon. The food was really good. The server was friendly, courteous, and fast.

Recommended. read more. What Onyx Black doesn't like about George's Linworth Diner:

They refused to serve me because I was ordering takeout. They didn't even try to be polite about it, I was literally just told to leave. I'm a fairly shy person and I wouldn't go back here if it was the last place in Columbus serving breakfast food and I love me some breakfast food. Fortunately there are lots of other places that can serve mediocre eggs and toast. read more.
