I had an overall excellent experience. The food and drinks were absolutely wonderful. They have a wide variety of liquor and wine available at very reasonable prices. The servers were composed and extremely efficient for a Friday evening dinner service with a full bar. I will definitely be coming back. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is free WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Margie Welker doesn't like about Bellflower:
I loved the atmosphere. The service was great, as were the cocktails. I wanted to love this place, but my dinner was super salty and not good tasting. My husband had the same experience with a different dish. The shrimp and smelt appetizer was salty, and a bit greasy. Overall, I was disappointed with the food.Parking: Lot across the street by bus station was free after 6pm. read more. In case you're craving some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: exquisite menus, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you can try fine American menus like Burger or Barbecue. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Bellflower. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
