The largest DQ I've seen in some time. A two person crew with a great command of customer service. A bit overwhelmed at times but they handled the waves of people and kept the restaurant clean with smiles and a polite comment. Very impressive and great to see. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Michelle Meltzer doesn't like about Dairy Queen Grill Chill:

We walked in and the music was so loud that I couldn't hear my husband. I requested it to be turned down and the cashier laughed at us. My husband said no, seriously, I can't concentrate on the menu. The cashier did turn it down. After that service was a bit short. When we went into the larger dining area, the music was still blasting. Overall a very frustrating experience.
