This is my group's favorite dine in restaurant after church, and we all consistently rave about the food! The beef empanadas drew us in, but the Lomo Saltado and Seco con Frejoles keep us coming back! My wife and I appreciate the serving sizes also as there is either enough to share or easily get two entrees and take some home... if we can even stop eating it! Thanks Eli's! read more. What Brian D doesn't like about Eli's Peruvian Kitchen:

I really really wanted to love Eli 's, but the food fell short for my wife and I. I have my usual Peruvian joints in LA, but when my wife said she was in the mood for Peruvian, I had to put the San Diego food scene to the test. The service was excellent and the setting felt very home cooked meal-ish . Unfortunately, our meals were missing flavor. But, the taste of reused oil or an uncleaned grill with tons of char mi...
