The pizza here may change your life. I recommend sausage and peppers as your toppings of choice. I've noticed the smaller the pizza is in size the better it tasted, but that could just be my experience. The service is sometimes a little slow when it's busy, but the staff is super nice and attentive. They even brought some crackers to the table for my 18 month old without being asked because they saw that she was a li... read more. What Nikki S doesn't like about Toni's Pizza House:

Baked ziti, more like a soup with as much water as there was. Had absolutely no flavor. Super disappointed, I remember dining here years ago and it was delicious. I have a membership next door and thought this could have been a go to spot, I will say service was good and hope that they would do better. Food: 2/5 read more.
