20$ for a carne Asada plate the carne Asada was literally so dry over cooked It was more like beef jerky instead of carne Asada. I use to love this place- was my favorite but not like everywhere else it's all about money and no care for the quality of food. Look forward to the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub provides a diverse variety of fine and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine.
