For changing offers, please contact the restaurant owner directly. You can also contact them through their website. What Vijay Sai likes about Flying Idlis:

Excellent place for south Indian breakfast foods. Predominantly we can find varieties of Idlies and varieties of Dosas. South Indian Coffee is also available. Puri is also available. Fiery dosa is a must try. You can ask for Kids Chutney for kids. They do catering services also. Call them for live dosa at your place. The hotel is getting renovated and the seating is not that good. Kids high chair is available here. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Pritesh Bhoumick doesn't like about Flying Idlis:

It used to be really good. But quality and taste has gone down substantially over the years. Poori was below average and sabzi was just boiled potato pieces on a bland curry. Idli was good, but sambhar and chutney lacked any flavour. Dosa was tangy and thick. Chai was good. read more. The comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Flying Idlis, the menu also includes delectable vegetarian recipes. You have a big birthday party and want to enjoy the food at your place? With the in-house catering service, that's no problem, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here.
