This place was a solid option. Went here to get some crab legs because the preferred option wasn't open and this didn't disappoint. The special was 1/2 pound of crab legs and 1/2 pound of headless shrimp with potatoes, corn, boiled eggs and sausage. Also got it with the special seasoning which is everything mixed together. It was cooked very well and the spice was good too. Maybe had a little too much cayenne but sti... read more. What

Adrian Rus doesn't like about The Crab Barrack:

I will definitely go back and give this place another shot but they were training service members and I definitely think that effected our entire experience especially being a seafood restaurant that our server didn't understand the menu ?I had a dozen raw oysters didn't get any horseradish and the hot sauce looked at tasted old. Had to ask for everything; oyster fork, crackers, horseradish or hot sauce ??My sister's... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential.
