When we walked in the door I knew it was going to be a great time just by reading the ambiance of the spot and the cherry folks in it. We sat down right away and Frankie, our server, took our drink order. I had coffee but I saw some yummy bloody Mary's and mimosas go by. I enjoyed the breakfast special the Hillbilly, full serving (always a plus in my book) and my wife had a really good looking cheese burger. If you're in the area... read more.
