Grabbed up a dozen oysters, a Morten Oyster Knife, a lemon and lime and McCocktail Sauce for $24, market was about to close, should have grabbed some shrimp dip too but I headed across the street read more. What

User doesn't like about Safe Harbor Seafood Market:

If you want waterfront dining with nice atmosphere this is not the place. The seafood is fresh but the presentation on small trays is lacking, as well as the too scarce tables with spotty service. All in a noisy, stuffy room the prices are too high for this. Skip the dine in and get takeout. read more. The Safe Harbor Seafood Market in Sharpes serves various flavorful seafood menus.
