We had a girls' trip to Monticello and Madison visiting antique/ vintage stores and planned on having a little late at Chophouse. It wasn't busy that Saturday maybe because it was cold), got seated and served quickly. I had the grilled porchop with fried okra and fried green tomatoes. My 3 friends had fish and chips and 2 sides. The sweet potato fries was very good too. My meal was very tasty, delicious and good port... read more. What Victor Royer

doesn't like about Madison Chophouse Grille:

The food we had was excellent! The service was adequate she was probably overworked! If someone was to look up and see the dust and dirt hanging off the AC and heating vents in the ceiling they would probably leave and not eat. I'm surprised the health department has not shut them down for how dirty the air conditioning and heating vents are in the ceiling. If I would have notice this before I started eating I would...
