We've been enjoying drafts at BlueJacket for over a decade with our favorite being the Lost Weekend. The kitchen (and its quality) has changed over time, but the current sandwiches, as well as feta and buffalo chicken dips and the beet salad, are very well executed. Come before or after a Nats game and sit outside to enjoy the weather or inside to gaze at the wonderfully repurposed and multistory warehouse space. We... read more. What

Yessenia McKenzie doesn't like about Bluejacket:

Food is delicious! We ate outside. They offer indoor and outdoor seating. We didn't love the service, mainly because they use a QR code for the menu and you pay for your food in advance. Some people love that, but it felt like ordering carry out and getting it served to you at the table. Eventually, a server came and brought us hard copies of the menu and took our order. The ladies' bathroom needed attention. I would... read more.
