This place has a lot of variety as far as their buffet. Hot and spicy to no spice. Many types of chicken, and pork dishes. This last time they even had crawfish which was pretty good seeing as it is out of season. The green beans are out of this world delicious. The furthest buffet offers desserts, fruit, sushi, and a soft ice cream machine. Also on the buffet for kids who don't like Chinese food there are tater tots,... read more. What Adriana

Hoeger doesn't like about China Buffet:

honestly, one of the worst meal times of my life with the sushi that was bland and very dry next we go the hunch on a stock that was freezing and very extreme bland was none of this eating that the right temperature and if the manager she just shrugged it off the food looks as if it had been sitting since the ming dynasty I would not serve this food to a trapped on read more.
