Had an amazing Valentine's Day dinner here at Cabra! It was our first time dining here and we were so impressed. From the food, rooftop atmosphere, and service was so fast. We were blown away by the food. For 2, we ordered 5 tapas and 1 "entree" dish and it was too much to finish, but we were happy to take it home with us. Our favorite dishes were the salmon handroll party and the brussel sprouts with tofu hummus... but... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. WLAN is available free of charge.

What Mark Diffie doesn't like about Cabra Los Angeles:

The atmosphere is very nice and the service is attentive and friendly. The food is extremely heavy and secretly loaded with mayonnaise. The chorizo cheese dip is actually cheese flavored mayonnaise. It tasted like bad oil and made us nauseous. There is nothing Peruvian about the menu. Disappointed and do not recommend. read more.
