Here you can find the menu of Brew Pub Cantina in Park City. At the moment, there are 17 meals and drinks on the menu. Overall, the reviews for this restaurant are mixed. While the beer is highly praised for being delicious and flavorful, the food seems to be a major point of contention. Many reviewers experienced issues with their food orders, including overcooked burgers, improperly cooked tuna, and stale chips. There were also complaints about small portion sizes and high prices. However, the service received mixed reviews, with some customers praising the friendly and accommodating staff, while others found the service to be inattentive.

Despite the food issues, the atmosphere of the restaurant was generally well-liked, with many customers enjoying the fun and relaxed environment. The wait times for seating were mentioned as being typical for Park City. Ultimately, the general consensus seems to be that this restaurant is a decent spot for beer lovers, but may not be the best choice for a full meal.
