This is definitely a special place. Walked in for a cup of coffee because the shop called to me and I walked out with the best pastry I have had outside of France. Might be one of the best pasties ever now that I think of it. Oh, and the guy behind the counter gamely conversed with me in French for as far as my mastery would go (almost through the ordering process). Wonderful place, and done right. A new favorite. What christine oh doesn't like about Un Je Ne Sais Quoi:

Picked up an iced vanilla latte and a lemon meringue tart. The coffee was decent, but personally had way too much syrup that it masked any taste of coffee. It pretty much tasted like vanilla syrup milk. As a lemon tart lover, I was not overly impressed with this one, although presentation-wise, looked beautiful. read more.
