Meh.. I have to say that while the overall meal was good enough to eat, it was also generally kind of disappointing. The highlights were definitely the chicken feet in black bean sauce and the pork and shrimp dumplings but the rest of the dumplings weren't fresh and fell apart very easily. Also, the chinese broccoli looked like it had seen better days and was served with literally two drops of oyster sauce very unfor... read more. What

Assia Vitale doesn't like about Winsor Dim Sum Cafe:

First time trying this place for lunch when we visited Boston on a Saturday. The food is great, however the place is very small. We went during busy time and had to share table with 2 other groups. Since dining for me is a combination of taste, and experience, I would say I didn't have a good experience overall. I would rather get something for take out and eat on the park. Good to know: min 40 for credit card, 2.5 c... read more.
