I went with my family as a last minute resort. The staff was attentive and helpful, they even accommodated us with a booth since we were people. The food was good and everyone enjoyed themselves. I would go back alone or on a date since it's more of a small plates and cocktails type of place. I enjoyed it and will definitely go back read more. What User doesn't like about El Cortez:

I reserved a table for 10 for my birthday and they gave us a booth that fit 6 people squeezed in tightly. When the last 4 people showed up we asked for chairs and they said they didn't have any left in the entire restaurant. My friends had to stand at the bar instead of eating with us. Our waitress came over one time and only took half our orders. She never came back. This place sucks. read more. Anticipate the varied, delicious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), It is a hit with the guests to have a assortment of different drinks. Watching various sports events and competitions is equally one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar, Here, the barbecue is freshly cooked on an open flame.
