What User likes about Mcdonald's: (mccafe I ordered a large cappuccino and asked how much vanilla syrup would be added if I ordered the vanilla cappuccino. the answer was 7 pumping, so I asked only 4 because this seemed too much. I was a bit worried that my order would be confused because it is often in various coffee shops. the dame that gave me my coffee, said I have you, only 4 pumping it was really nice of her to let me know that my order was so friendly looked after. the only mistake was that I didn't get a full cup, there was more than a centimeter space in the cup. I know mcd has pre-portioned donators that probably spend a little less in favor of profits and that 3 more pumps of sirup would probably have filled the room a bit more. so no one who owes. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What
