What User likes about Village Inn:

eating here was excellent! hot and very large portions. the only reason why I gave 4 stars instead of 5 is that the server was high and smells like marihuana to the point when she passed, that was all she could smell.

management really has to stop allowing their employees to smoke gras while working. we came here to eat and do not have to deal with this terrible smell. do what they want on their own time, but try to... read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Village Inn:

We have been going here for more than 10 years. Recently the service has gotten slower although the servers seem to be working hard. This time was the worst. At one point there was no food coming out of the kitchen...nothing was happening for probably 10 to 15 minutes. Finally our food arrived. I had ordered a chicken fried steak, green beans and Texas toast. The salad had come out earlier and was quite good. The mai... read more. In case you're hungry some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delightful dishes, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, The customers of the establishment also appreciate the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. You can also look forward to scrumptious vegetarian cuisine, and you can try delicious American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
