I'm a native San Antonian, and a tex mex foodie. I will confidently say that the quesabirilla tacos, the al pastor, and the chicken tingas tacos are the BEST I have had in all of San Antonio. The customer service of this family owned Taco Truck is amazing everyone is nice and very personable. If you haven't tried the tacos from this specific taco truck you are greatly missing out. Thank you to the family that owns and... read more. What User doesn't like about El Pastorcito Food Truck:

pastor tacos are good, salsas are not so good. they have no sodados, only Mexican soda for $3 each. I only give them three stars because they overload you. they do not appreciate the prices outside the truck window, they will simply load them more without telling them. Make sure they check the total before they pay to deny the sum when they overload them. even if they pay with a credit card, they will charge $1 ext... read more.
