$32 for fried chicken during a recession is ludicrous (can it be fried in liquid gold? and the menu has many other expensive bar foods that they cost nothing to do. but that said, the drinks and the personal and the general mood is great. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Copper Common:

came here with a group for cocktails and from the 3 of us drink two drinks each, none of us liked each of them. they all tasted as if they had 2-3x as much sugar as they had. the old fashioned (a classic with a minimum amount of sugar) tasted so sick that it was unreliable as an old fashioned. very surprising when you look at the attraction at this place, the drinks are! the service was super friendly and nice, but o...
