What Blanche Lueilwitz likes about Alpine Country Coffee Shop:

This is a nice place to get great food for a good price. Portions are more than fair and the food is tasty. The decor is stuck in the 80's I think, but it's clean and the staff is great as they come around several times to make sure everything is ok. I never got past half a cup of coffee because they were always there to fill my cup up again. I loved that! My friend had the machaca plate and I had the Florentine eggs... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Anjali Lynch doesn't like about Alpine Country Coffee Shop: Strange place. Food was bland, the egg benedict had an astringent/drying feel, almost tasted artificial, one of the eggs was fully cooked, yolk included. They don't refill waters without you asking (good luck finding someone to help). They ask for service dog documentation which I'm pretty sure is illegally . read more. A visit to Alpine Country Coffee Shop is particularly valuable due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, There are also scrumptious South American meals on the menu. Also, they offer you fine seafood dishes, Forbreakfast a versatile brunch is offered here.
