No disco on my fry's, no bacon on my burger, more attention from the fruit flies than the waiters, but that one waiter (James) is the most amazing waiter iv ever met read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is free WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Station:

I worked here. it is not farm to table, local ingredients are only served. if the truck order is badly planned, (always) that eating is subpar. (sometimes you pay $60 for something they paid much less. (riff, sweet, fruits they never asked, but they calculate them 4 dollars for etc.) their bark is up, that everyone has. they are not chic when they are not. only because they charge 14 dollars for a cocktail, or sell i...
